"Who in the world knows what's best for my baby?" "You do! says Dr. Leila Denmark. "If mothers would just use their brains and take responsibility, they would know what to do for their children." In our fast changing culture, moms can become thoroughly confused and frustrated by conflicting child care advice. In this book, the legendary 109-year-old pediatrician with a seventy-five-year practice guides a mother of eleven with time-tested common sense. (From the back cover of the book)
