The Complete Gospel of Barnabas Barnabas

The Gospel of Barnabas is the gospel that history forgot. The earliest copies of this gospel date from Medieval times, could that be because early generations had tried to hide the fact it have even been written? This Gospel follows a close interpretation of the Islamic view of the life of Jesus and has been closely studied by Islamic scholars over the years.

It's early pages follow closely those of the Canonical Gospels but it is towards the end that the really explosive material arises. Barnabas tells us that it wasn't Jesus that was crucified on the cross, but another major figure in the Canonical Gospels.
