At some point, we all will face major adversity or walk with someone who does. This book tells the inspiring story of someone who not only dealt with significant adversity from the age of four but has been able to live a victorious and joyful life in spite of challenges that would overwhelm many. The story about Debbie McDonald will demonstrate the choices we can make in the midst of incredible physical, emotional and situational hardships and how those choices can bring hope and meaning to our lives. It also shows how God's grace and the loving support of family and friends can truly enable us to gain victory over anything that life brings our way. If you are looking for hope or love stories that affirm hope, this book is worth a read.
