Nightmares for Insomniacs: Short Stories J. Delgado-Figueroa

Three stories of pre-millennial men misled by their trust in humanity and their ability to deal with unforeseen circumstances: a man whose unfailing love for a sick friend leads him to an encounter with unfettered greed; a writer too reliant on the power of his face to suspect a special form of identity theft; a young Catholic monk crushed by the challenges of life with other men whose motivation to dress in a religious habit has nothing to do with religion.
