Brenda, Second Edition Matthew Riehl

In Brenda, ten-year-old Jax Wright's brazen attempt to avoid the lash of a father's belt resulted in a tragic accident for which he paid a heavy price -- a shattered soul, the loss of his family, and an eight-year stint in a juvenile detention facility. Upon his release, Jax realizes his only option is to put the past behind him and make a new life for himself. As he begins his struggle with the fear that accompanies adjusting to life on the outside, Jax is suddenly faced with a far more daunting challenge. There's someone who's been watching and waiting during his incarceration intent on making him remember the past by making his future living hell.
