Literary short stories by established and emerging writers.

Adam Soto

The Box

And Teenesee says, "Yes, I am the woman who appears when grown men cry out for their mothers. I am the ferryman who rows them to the other side."

Aurora Brackett

Beginnings

My mom had been in the hospital a long time. She says her parents were trying to hide her away until the sixties were over, until Carter was in office.

Lillian Li

Parts of Summer

He was going to be a doctor, but no one at medical school told him about fan death. Sometimes, the Chinese are wiser. We've been around longer.

Zeynep Ozakat

Moving from Istanbul

He hadn't really traveled beyond the East Coast except for Los Angeles. And he kind of wanted to see where people carried guns, where the Mormons and the Amish existed.

Eric Thompson

The King of India

This was the beginning of an endless series of rash decisions about what their unborn child would and definitely would not be.

David Abrams

A Little Bit of Everything

It was garden pesticides, the accumulation of paper cuts, the sprained ankle from that brief try at jogging in 1982, the diets, the binges, the resumption of cigarettes in 1989 and the re-quitting two months later.

Eva Lomski

The Things We Build

Estelle's was one of the low-cost bank houses, built in the thirties for employees to buy at reduced mortgage rates.

Tom Franklin and Beth Ann Fennelly

Interview by Kevin Rabalais

These details of my own life began to infiltrate Crooked Letter, and it shocked me how autobiographical the novel had become.

Julia Strayer

Bright and Bleached

From the outside, my mother's house is the mirror image of Uncle Leroy's house. The builders were lazy, I guess. They flopped houses in pairs all down the street.

Sommer Schafer

In the Beginning

To combat minor depression, which he believed to be the cause of some spiritual weakness in himself, he got into vitamins sold under a company called Megalife.

Joshua D. Gruber

Freeman Götschall

It does not take a Lorenz to realize that the branching possibilities reached this way could drive a man paranoid.

Rowena Macdonald

My Brother Is Back

Fran is being her usual self. Completely furious with me. All the time. I'd forgotten how constant she is with her fury.

Omid Fallahazad

Arrested

Naser came to visit us unannounced. I was sitting on a chair in the bathroom, waiting for my wife to give me a haircut.

Soma Mei Sheng Frazier

Flyaways

There is the iconic flat line, and their mother is gone, too.

Marni Berger

Waterside

My body keeps on without me. I see it, running alone through the dark and white world: the navy blue night and the sparkling snow.

Christa Romanosky

Every Shape that the Moon Makes

Somewhere in Mexico there is a crater from the comet that wiped out the dinosaurs, another in Arizona large enough to bury a skyscraper.

Maxine Rosaler

The Red Cart

"No time," he told me. "Been fumigating for forty-five minutes." "That's very alliterative of you, but you can't do this to me," I told him.

Siamak Vossoughi

The Tune

All over the world, he would think, there were people wishing that the other person would listen as much as they spoke. He was the one man wishing a woman would speak as much as she listened.
