Excerpt from Official Documents Connected With the Definition of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary: In Latin and English, With a Complete List of the Cardinals and Prelates Present in the Basilica of St. Peter, the 8th December, 1854

The papers comprised in this volume need no preface to set forth their value, or increase the interest of the important event they are collected to commemorate. They are the official documents relating to the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. From them we may learn the solicitude of the Church to guard unchanged the deposite of faith, and her zeal to promote the sanctification of her children by unfolding for their instruction those sacred truths which God has revealed to secure his merciful ends.

The eighth of December, 1854, must be numbered among the most memorable days of the nineteenth century. We know that many, long since gathered to the eternal abodes of heavenly glory, longed to see this day.
