Alice Cantor never imagined that her major of choice might lead her to a man as alluring as Thomas Lerner.

The British import is well spoken, devastatingly attractive, and intelligent to boot. He also happens to be her professor - a complication she struggles with until an afternoon of passion consumes them both.

When the young woman finds herself dealing with the aftermath of their indiscretion, she'll discover that things are not always what they seem, and that Professor Lerner is out to teach her a very delicious lesson.
