Love, there's nothing in the world like it. It can give you life and at the same time take it away. It can make you feel like you're floating and then suddenly, without warning, drop you to the ground. Love is something else.

Chance McKnight wanted absolutely nothing to do with love. Being a player, jumping from woman to woman, was more important than any emotional tie love could have ever delivered to him. That's how he lived his life until he met Cairo. Like a thief in the night she stole his heart. When trouble comes knocking will the drama that goes along with having a stable of women cost him his true love?

Joziah Carter is set to wed the love of his life, Demi. He is eager to start a family and finally be settled down. Only thing is, Demi isn't the love of his life and she is more interested in shopping and partying than playing the happy housewife. Meet JaToya, the owner of the key to Joziah's heart. When love conflicts with your loyalty, which one do you choose?

Bryce Edwards has a beautiful woman, a carefree lifestyle and is part owner in a nightclub. Life couldn't be better until Bryce becomes jealous and greedy. When his love, Yolanda, finds out about his betrayal she leaves Bryce holding his heart in his hand. After he realizes what he's lost will his fight be enough to win Yolanda's trust and gain a second chance?

When betrayal, revenge and deception rear their ugly heads will love be able to conquer all? Can love save the day or will they all be trapped waiting on forever?
