A Mother's Work is Never Done... Carolyn Aspenson's (Unfinished Business) latest picks up the story of Angela Panther's dealings with her dead mom, Fran and the duo's dynamic is as delightful as ever! Angela thought she had her psychic gift under control until a traumatic loss caused it to stop working properly. Now, as certain aspects of her life begin to unravel, she needs her mother more than ever. So of course there will be no "resting in peace" for Fran while there's strife in Angela's life. And you thought your mom was meddling! But truth be told, Angela missed her mom... Thankfully for Angela, when you're a mom, there is no such thing as "till death do us part" and Fran finds a way to reach out. Soon she's back in the game, "helping out" in any way she can, whether Angela can see her or not. When Angela's best friend, Mel figures out her husband is cheating on her, she and Angela ask for Fran's help in catching him. Mel encourages Fran to use her haunting hijinks to help catch her husband in the affair, but some of these tricks to trip up the living aren't suited to every situation and Angela wants to dial it down a notch. But when Fran discovers Angela's teen daughter has gotten involved with a guy who couldn't be more wrong for her, she begins to see the value in ghostly shenanigans. And Angela soon finds it's a mess that might need to be handled with more delicacy than perhaps the dead can deliver. Oh, and speaking of the dead, the other ghosts have been finding ways to reconnect again... But Angela and Fran are sure to work it all out in this hilarious, heartwarming sequel that proves the bonds between mother and daughter are indeed unbreakable!

_____ "Aspenson carries the reader along on a rollicking adventure that highlights both the joys and conflicts of mother-daughter relationships. She will make you simultaneously wish you had a mother like Fran while being grateful you don't." -- Katrina Rasbold "...think Ghost Whisperer, but with none of the darkness." -- Charlene Donnough
