The Academic Encounters Second edition series uses a sustained content approach to teach skills necessary for taking academic courses in English. There are two books for each content area. Academic Encounters Level 3 Student's Book Reading and Writing Life in Society engages students with authentic academic readings, photos, and charts on stimulating topics from the field of sociology. Topics include peer pressure, the influence of the media, and balancing home and work. Students develop important skills, such as reading critically, examining graphic material, note-taking, and preparing for a quiz. By completing writing assignments, students build academic writing skills and incorporate what they have learned. The topics correspond with those in Academic Encounters Level 3 Listening and Speaking Life in Society. The books may be used independently or together.

Allison Morales:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Academic Encounters Level 3 Student's Book Reading and Writing: Life in Society (Academic Encounters. Life in Society) can make you sense more interested to read.
