By all accounts, I should be about the happiest girl on earth right about now. I've established a successful modeling career, I'm going to have a baby in a few months, and I'm engaged to the billionaire mogul who happens to be the child's father.

Craig is an amazing man, not to mention an immaculate lover, and there's really nothing in my life with which I'm dissatisfied. The only real fly in the ointment is my wandering eye, an old habit that I can't quite seem to shake.

It gets me in some serious hot water when, one day, I come across an old boyfriend of mine at a friend's photo shoot. Now, I'm left trying to resist temptation, and I seem to be failing quite fast at the attempt...
