The real power of nonverbal communication revealed!

Did you know that when you are interacting with someone, there is also a conversation happening at a higher, subconscious level? Successful people utilize their nonverbal cues to get what they want depending on the given circumstances. If you don't know anything about body language, it may be a good idea to simplify your observations at times. Body language education does not lead to mind reading. You can, however, gain a much better understanding of how people are feeling and what they need from you instead of trying to break down everything you notice into a complicated hypothesis.

Learning to read body language can be a very freeing experience. It keeps you from having to sit around and wonder what is really going on in many situations. This skill may help you to avoid conflict and know when to move on. It can also give you a clue as to how to proceed with your own responses. People may be surprised to see that you respond to what their body language hints at instead of what they are actually saying out loud.
