Amber will do almost anything for money, including spending the night in the notorious Murdock House. Haunted to the core, not even a paranormal investigation team has been able to last a night in the house. But a paranormal investigation team isn't a hungry college student with a reputation to maintain.

Spirits aren't the only things that lurk in the Murdock House though, Amber soon discovers. The creatures within bring a different kind of horror, and they're hungry for more than just a lost soul.

Approximate length: 12,200 words (a novelette)

Content Warning: Combining horror and erotica, this is not your typical love story. Intended for those 18+ only!

Excerpt:

"Please don't look," I whispered, closing my eyes in embarrassment.

"Why not? This belongs to us now, as does the rest of you. We can look as long as we like," Darius replied softly.

"Who is going first?" Shoji asked eagerly.

"I call dibs," Michael said.

"You already got dibs on her breasts. Let someone else have a turn," Darius chastised him.

"Perhaps we should ask the lady who she wants inside of her first," Artimus suggested.

"You." The word came out almost faster than I could think it. All the werewolves were handsome, but Artimus was the kindest, and if any of them were going to have their way with me first, I wanted it to be him.

"That was an easy decision," Shoji laughed uncomfortably.

"Well, we should give the lady what she wants," Artimus told him. "We do want her to grow to love us, don't we?"
