One summer day in 1995, far away from home, Bart decides to express his true gender identity for just one day. On that day, he meets a bisexual cisgirl named Ciara who helps him do just that. Thinking that they're never going to meet again, Bart spills all his secrets to Ciara.

When they meet again, Ciara and Bart quickly find themselves in a secret relationship, afraid to tell anyone the truth for fear of outing themselves. Over time, Bart starts expressing herself more and more as Veronica and Ciara starts to accept that she's attracted to more than one gender. During this time they're helped by Ciara's best friend, Aleta, who encourages both girls to be themselves.
