Javed Khan, a tough and seasoned detective, was the best homicide cop in New Delhi before being demoted to the Metro Division—but once again he's on the trail of a cold-hearted killer. He doesn't know if the murderer is a psychopath, a serial killer, or a self-styled vigilante—all Javed knows is that he is going to catch the killer and bring him to justice. The city is on edge as the death toll rises. The police brass want the killer caught—or better yet, shot on sight. Something must be done and soon. Doctor Indira Birwana, "Indie" to her friend, is a brilliant and beautiful doctor, who has worked hard to make her family proud. She returned home from the states for her father's funeral and becomes fiercely protective of her precious younger sister, who has fallen in love with the boy next door. Indie's joy turns to ashes when her sister and her fiancé are victims of a heinous crime. Indie's heart is broken. But not her spirit. Javed questions everyone involved in the deaths but his only lead to the killer is Indie. Soon, Javed finds himself drawn to her like no other woman. But duty and passion collide as the powder keg of angry citizens and violence is poised to explode as Javed's search for the killer tightens. His own dark past collides with his sense of duty and law as the search moves closer and closer to finding the killer. Now Javed and Indie are both running out of time and must make a decision... before one of them dies.
