Casting Stones: A Small Group Bible Study about Judgment and the Pain of Feeling Judged Alanna Jones

The lessons found in Casting Stones open the door for honest discussion about the struggle Christians face when dealing with Judgment. Each lesson takes a look at unique encounters found in the Bible of men and women who faced judgment in many different forms. Their stories open up the opportunity for discussion about judgment and open the doors for lessons to be learned about the challenge of living as a Christian in today's ever-changing world of judgment. Each lesson starts with an introduction story about the topic, followed by questions and bible readings to open the door for inspiring meaningful discussion within your small group.

The twelve lessons found in this book are...Initial Judgments, Judgment Good or Bad?, Fear of Judgment, Judgment of Leaders, Judgment for your Occupation, When Judgment Leads to Jealousy, Judgment by Association, False Judgment, Judgment for Past Mistakes, Drawing the Line of Judgment in the Church, Judgment for Having a Disability, and Self Judgment
