Ling Chung is pleased to present her new picture book for kids. This easy reading book for children contains fun facts about the different classifications of fishes.

This delightful picture book for children, from about 4-10, contains a variety of discussions on how fishes live and survive in the ocean. This contains 18 wonderful graphic images to accompany the story. It offers interesting facts, in simple language, and although appropriate for all these ages for the 4 year olds to early second grade, probably, it will need to be viewed with a parent. Students will encounter new words and concepts. They'll read about a closer discussion on the physical appearance of several fishes especially giving simple discussions on how fishes differ from each other in terms of fins and body shape. They'll also learn what specific fish can be taken cared of as a pet.

The images in the book are primarily color photographs that are stunning if read with a Kindle Fire or the Kindle Application on one of the tablet devices or the PC. Black and White readers will be also see them clearly but will just miss the added dimension available with color.

Children will also find answers to kid-style questions.

- What type of fish is Nemo?
- What kind of fish can be eaten?

Teachers and home schooling parents will find this book a wonderful addition to their nonfiction libraries. It provides selected passages on an assortment of subjects. Great illustrations bring the text to life.
