After an unsuspecting raid destroys the Bishop family empire, many hands fight to take over the territory now up for grabs. While Nessa thinks she's won against her cheating, womanizing ex-man, Luke plays a few chess moves of his own. His plan to win at a game his father instilled in him, while testifying against those he once loved, backfires terribly. Chetti simply isn't having it, and she'll do whatever it takes to remain in control and live in the lap of luxury; while taking down her very own family.

Betrayal runs deep and love seems to have no meaning. As new enemies emerge, lives are lost and truth becomes eminent. Nessa, Luke and Chetti involve themselves in a treacherous game that could leave everyone they've ever loved dead. This second installment of the Filthy Rich series is sure to have readers drooling until the book is complete. Fire!
