Fundamentos de la Metafísica de las Costumbres (Spanish Edition) Immanuel Kant

La Fundamentación de la metafísica de las costumbres también conocido como los Fundamentos de la metafísica de la moral, es el primero de los trabajos maduros de Immanuel Kant en la filosofía de la moral y sigue siendo uno de los más influyentes en su campo. Publicado en 1785, Kant concibe su investigación como un trabajo de ética fundamentales, una que despeja el camino para futuras investigaciones al explicar los conceptos centrales y los principios de una teoría moral y mostrando que éstos son normativos para agentes racionales. Kant aspira a no menos que esto: revelar los principios fundamentales de la moralidad y mostrar que son aplicables para nosotros. En el texto, Kant provee de un argumento innovador que lo correcto de una acción está determinado por el carácter del principio por el cual una persona decida actuar. La ética kantiana entonces toma una postura con marcado contraste de la Teoría del Sentido Moral y teorías teleológicas morales que dominaban la filosofía moral en la época que escribía.
