Ever picked up a book with an absurd name and been skeptical to buy it, well I guess this qualifies. Here is a short book for the amazingly fast world we live in. If you never heard of a Potato talk about love or wanting to overthrow a government, you are in for a surprise. 'Potatoism' promises a refreshing perspective towards writing and the world.

'Adolescence' reflects the journey of the transformation of thoughts, opinions and the body of an individual. The story talks about objects and events that we see, hear or experience everyday, never giving it a second thought. Serving true to its name, Adolescence is a compilation of personal events of an adolescent with a tinge of fiction.
