Patricia was one of the brightest talents in the sport of tennis in the country. She had won all the major amateur tournaments that there were in US and had her sights set on breaking into the WTA rankings. She had the all the support systems that were needed to succeed at this level – a supportive family, a great coach and access to the best facilities and nutritionists. The only thing that she lacked was the ability or scope to lead a normal life away from public view.

Given such a lifestyle, Patricia's father knew that there was always danger lurking round the corner. That is why he decided to hire a security firm to have a bodyguard assigned to her for her protection. This does not sit well with Patricia initially, but she finally relents and thanks her stars for it because she had never seen a man like Matt in her life. Would Matt be able to satisfy the gaping hole in her personal life? Or will he turn out to be just another employee at her service?p>
