The Bad, the Hopeful, the Incomplete: A Heart's Cycle of Emotion Khristopher Fuselier

This collection of poetry was originally written in lyrical format. Khristopher Fuselier has taken a large collection of his originals and converted them into a more poetic form. The content is presented in a self-created theoretical sequence that Fuselier claims the heart to experience repetitively during the process of the more common painful emotions.

The author, a recording artist, has served two enlistments in the United States Armed Forces-one in the Air Force and another in the Marine Corps.
