“Stay away from those basketball players,” was the only warning Jessica’s father gave before she boarded the train.

Jessica left her comfortable home in New Jersey to start a new journey on the campus of Morgan State University. Jessica didn’t think much of it, until she met James, a charming basketball player for the Morgan State Bears, who had his eyes and heart set on Jessica.

Coming from humble beginnings, James quickly learned never to take anything or anyone for granted. College was his chance to make something of himself and prove that his older sister Kelly’s sacrifices were not in vain.

Fighting to escape financial struggle, James quickly finds himself headed straight towards what he had been trying so desperately avoid. He decides to take matters into his own hands.

Jessica and James are faced with a struggle that could shift both of their lives. Will true love prevail, or will money come between love?
