In The Johns Hopkins White Paper: Colon Cancer, specialists from Johns Hopkins Medicine report in-depth on the latest colon cancer screening tests, prevention strategies, and treatments. Although the American Cancer Society ranks colorectal cancer-a term that includes cancers of both the colon and the rectum -- as the third most common cause of cancer overall in the United States (and the second leading cause of cancer-related deaths among men and women), it is one of the most curable of all cancers when diagnosed and treated in the early stages.
