Three sisters – Three very different lives sharing one secret

Ellen, always caring, runs a billiards hall with her beloved Reg. Louise, selfish, cold and ever the social climber, has her eyes set on better things and heads for a new life in Australia with her businessman husband. The third sister, Lily, fair and fragile, having lost her feckless man to war, can barely cope with her two small daughters.

An unhappy compromise is reached and a secret pact is made between the three sisters. The two daughters are separated, one going with Louise to Australia the other staying with her mother. Their relationship remains a secret: neither knows that she has a sister.

Years later, the two young women are pitted against each other in the fight for the love of one man with heartbreaking consequences and which tear the families and the sisters apart.

‘Convincing plot with an unexpected sting’ Elizabeth Elgin
