Emily has it all - a high pressure job, an eight year old daughter obsessed with ballet who may or may not have an eating disorder, and a demanding mother that always wants more. She finds some escape at her secret second job, dancing as the mysterious masked woman at an exclusive gentleman's club. Emily doesn't have the time or patience for a relationship.

Bolin Xia is one of the wealthiest men in the world. He comes to New York to close a deal and becomes smitten with the mysterious masked woman. Then he meets Emily at the bank and can't shake the feeling that he has met her before.

Emily and Bolin discover that they have a rare passion together, one that could destroy a rich friendship. With both of them afraid to take the next step in their relationship, it looks as if they are doomed to stay friends. Then Bolin discovers Emily's alter ego...
