Dark cumulus clouds pale gray skies teary eyes in a lonely room but that was yesterday. Dilapidated temple, a broken heart and sorrow filled viens death crouched at my door but that was yesterday. As you read the many poems contained within these covers you will be taken to many different worlds, times and experiences. I try to speak to the true emotions of each reader and not a particular person. Read with an open mind and enjoy the journey as much as I did while I was creating this work.
