The Little Dragon "I-Can't" Timo Firtina

A lovingly illustrated children's book for children aged 3 to 8 years old. Including guided imagery script - to make your little ones more confident.

"I can't! Will you help me?" For the little dragon everything is too difficult. He thinks he cannot do anything that he is asked to do. Through his "I can't! Will you help me?" and his little dragon tears, he makes Mummy and Daddy Dragon, who cannot see their little one cry, help him with everything. But one day, on a trip, the little dragon loses his parents and is suddenly on his own in the great forest...

"The little Dragon I-Can't" is an educational book in which the topic "independence" is being addressed in a way that is easily understood by children. Through his story the little Dragon generates the power in children to face their everyday life situations and to trust in themselves. The pedagogic picture-book is perfect for children aged 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 years old as well as for kindergarten and reading beginners.
