Caden was desperate for something new. When browsing the paper one day, he finds an opportunity to work for a rich man named Leo. He had heard of this man before but didn't know much about him. However, he sees the monetary amount and knows for sure it's more than he would make at his shitty part-time job.

But when Caden heads to the mansion, he learns about the true job: being a personal milk boy to this older man. At first, he's worried about it, unsure if he wants to do it, but money is at stake and Caden soon learns that it's better than he thinks. However, his reservations about the aspects of milking still take over his mind. Will Caden give into his desires and work for this man? Or will he strive to get away from this strange business, throwing away every chance he could have had for a great amount of money?
