Gen Z: The Revolution Davied E. Kelley Jr.

In the year 1999, over 200,000 children were murdered or killed worldwide. The generation war had started, and governments were unable or unwilling to stem the violence being waged against children. So at the end of the 21st century, the children decided to do something about it. They turned on their parents in their quest to take over the country, and the world.
