Dispatches to Grover: Unsolicited Letters to my Twin Ludlow Smutt

Ludlow and Grover Smutt are identical twin brothers who have always been close despite the significant difference in their ages. After a difficult childhood, made more difficult because of their proximity to each other, they were rarely together. Ludlow lived for a long time outside the country while extradition procedures were being sorted out, and Grover's years in the "Home" also served to keep them apart. Grover had a history of unsuccessful therapy aimed at breaking him of his addiction to therapy sessions. "Dispatches to Grover" is a compilation of letters that Ludlow sent to his brother over a period of several years, and it's unclear exactly when they were written - or why. The book will soon be released as a major motion picture starring the electrifying actor, Macon Sparks, in the role of "Gramps."
