A firefighter and his submissive wife face potentially life-threatening issues on their journey deeper into the world of BDSM.

Following a long-delayed honeymoon that saved their crumbling marriage, firefighter Dom Jamie Caldwell couldn't be happier with how his wife and submissive is taking to the lifestyle. But when a scene triggers a bad reaction and Erica doesn't use her safeword, Jamie wonders just how solid their bond truly is.

Erica is over the moon with her new relationship with her husband. Just months ago, they'd been on the verge of divorce, but now the future is bright—all thanks to the trust and honesty they've forged through BDSM. Everything they do is new and exciting... until it isn't. And neither one knows how to move forward after Erica's body betrays her.

When a medical condition turns everything they know upside down, can Jamie and Erica find a way to strengthen their fragile connection?

Note: Handle with Care is an in-between novella. To obtain maximum enjoyment, it should be read in sequence, or at least after having read Under His Command.
