My Foster Father C.C. Barrett

My Foster Father: Any girl lucky enough to be sent to live with the Masons learns what it means to be loved, part of a family, and strictly held responsible for their own behavior. Whether orphaned by a cruel twist of fate, abandoned as a juvenile or the victim of a parent's bad choices, My Foster Father recounts three stories of the young women sent to one particular foster home and a foster father that believes in corporal punishment. Although My Foster Father is written in first person, it is purely fiction for entertainment purposes, and contains the spanking of adult women.
