The Search for Freedom: Finding Freedom from Homosexuality Garrett Drew Ellis

For some men, same sex attractions are unwanted. In The Search for Freedom: Finding Freedom from Homosexuality, Garrett Drew Ellis gives his testimony of choosing to search out and build a healthy, biblical hetero-sexuality, despite having feelings of same sex attraction. Without condemnation or pronouncing judgement, he presents the biblical truths he needed to implement into his own life in order to serve God with his sexuality, all for those who may desire to do the same. His sincere wish is that through a presentation of those truths, unhappy and unfulfilled men who feel as he does will consider coming to know Christ starting their own journeys toward living free of unwanted same sex attraction. This testimonial includes bible study, devotionals and space for personal reflection. The following resources are meant to accompany the study, located at www.thesearchforfreedom.org:

- The Iron sharpens Iron Mentorship program: participants are able to sign up and connect with another man walking in freedom from homosexual feelings, all for the purpose of prayer, encouragement and support.
- A weekly discipleship email: participants are sent a weekly email that they can use for personal bible study and reflection.
- Freedom Seminars: willing participants can sponsor a seminar at their local church or ministry where Garrett will help to educate and equip men for the journey as well as family members and church leaders for ministry to men leaving homosexuality.

Garrett Drew Ellis is a freelance writer and lay counselor. His life's goal is helping the world and the Church to understand the complex lives of those considered to be on the outskirts of society. He has a heart for presenting Christ to the addicted, the hurting, the abused, the dysfunctional and the forgotten through writing on challenging, controversial subjects. He blogs at www.thesearchforfreedom.org and www.garrettdrewellis.com and has been published by the Christian Broadcast Network(CBN) on cbn.com. He lives in Pennsylvania with his wife and 3 children.
