A laugh-out-loud romcom about the work life imbalance Molly Warren's 6yr relationship with international journalist Max is like champagne - all froth and bubbles, when deep down she has a longing for beans on toast and yes - babies. But while Molly is thrilled to find herself pregnant, commitment-phobe Max's instinct is to run home to his open marriage as fast as he can. Molly soon finds herself out of a job, out of a relationship and out of luck. "A tender, entertaining read with some lovely set passages and an unexpected, heart-warming conclusion." THE BOOKSELLER "You'll never wear perfume the same way again!" D T MCDONNELL "Definitely one for independent women." PRIMA BABY "Highly amusing, perceptive tale." FAMILIES MAGAZINE
