The wheels on the bus go round and round . . . all day long! Riding a bus is a delightful experience for little boys and girls, and this miniature board book evokes much of that delight. Preschoolers will love the eye-catching, vividly colored illustrations on every page. The text presents repeating word patterns, which helps very young boys and girls develop listening and concentration skills, and pleasantly introduces them to the idea that books and reading are fun. Extra-thick and sturdy board pages with rounded corners are designed to resist wear and tear.
