Dr Men's Chinese Sublingual Diagnoses is created by Dr Beijing Men through his traditional Chinese medical and surgical experience, understanding of Dr Yingqing Zhang's ECIWO theory, physiology and pathology. By observing the bottom of the tongue, the practitioners are able to do a preliminary diagnose for the patients. Since the photo of the tongue can be viewed by both the practitioners and patients, it is a great way to educate the patients about their health. Once the diagnoses are clear, Dr Men will give you step by step guide to the use of Chinese herbs to treat the diseases. The best of all, you can also monitor the change of the tongue to measure patients' prognoses and progresses.
