There has been a lot of hype about making money online in the recent years. You see high school grads proclaiming how they work very few hours a week from anywhere in the world yet what they earn every single month is a lot more than what many college grads make as they work 9-5 jobs. Do you want to join the bandwagon to make the crazy money that these kids keep on bragging about? Well, the truth is that it is possible to make this kind of money online but you will only make this money if you know where to look. Forget about the scams that tell you that give you a secret system of making thousands of dollars every month if you buy the system for whatever amount of money; making money online comes with a caveat i.e. no guarantee. As such, don't expect a foolproof method of raking thousands of dollars while doing nothing as the system makes all the money for you while you tour the world.

And if you see anyone selling you such kind of program, beware; you are being conned. There is one saying that you need to realize when searching for information online; if you are accessing it freely, you are the product i.e. if you don't pay for it, you are the one on sale! It could be your visits, clicks, subscriptions etc. So don't expect free stuff online! As you get started, it is important to understand that making money online takes different forms; that's why this book has classified the methods so that you can find something that works for you.

Don't be fooled to think that blogging, email marketing, affiliate marketing and freelancing are the only ways you can make money online; there are tons of other methods that can rake you crazy money online. So what are these methods? We will learn all these to open your eyes to the world of possibilities!
