Third Time Was the Charm Latruth Fennell

The Oakridge Boys sang a song called "Looking for Love." I found myself "looking for love in all the wrong places." I heard the message one day that God is Love, so I decided to give him a try ... I found it to be true. I began to put my complete trust in Him alone and do things His way since my way didn't seem to be working. This book is about how I did that, and my life changed for the better, finding myself and my true love.
